

For Immediate Release
January 13, 2011

NEWFOUNDLAND AND LABRADOR LABAUCH LITERACY COUNCIL WELCOMES NEW ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT-PROJECTS

CORNER BROOK-The Board of Directors of the Newfoundland and Labrador Laubach Literacy Council has hired Sherry Humber as its newest employee who will be responsible for three specific initiatives 1. Volunteer/Learner Recruitment, 2. Fundraising and 3. Promotion/Public Relations.

Sherry is excited to have the opportunity to work with the NLLLC as she has a strong background in fundraising and public relations and she has a passion for helping people and for making life better for others.

“I have seen first hand the heartache associated with not being able to read. I am very excited by this opportunity to take on new fundraising initiatives and help with increasing the literacy services of the people of Newfoundland and Labrador,” said Humber. She adds, “to know that I will be making life easier for others is where my heart is.”

Sherry has been involved in the nonprofit sector since 1992 serving on boards and in working in various employment roles. She is also a volunteer tutor with NLLLC. Most recently she served as the Awareness Coordinator with the Alzheimer Society of Newfoundland and Labrador, Inc and is presently still working with the Association for New Canadians as an English as a Second Language tutor.

Humber is a graduate of the College of the North Atlantic’s Office Administration Program. She brings a high level of energy and enthusiasm to the NLLLC through her desire to increase literacy services. She is committed to helping NLLLC expand its volunteer tutoring program across the province so that more adults in need of help can be served.

Potential volunteer who are interested in helping adults improve their literacy skills can submit their name to be considered for future tutor training opportunities.

For further information, contact Sherry Humber at 634-1441 or email laubach.adprojects@gmail.com .

Margie Lewis
Executive Director
Newfoundland and Labrador Laubach Literacy Council
Box 822, 141 O’Connell Drive
Corner Brook, NL A2H 6H6
Toll-free: 1-800- 863-0373